LEGISLATOR STEVE STERN HONORS CANDLEWOOD PRINCIPAL DURING 50 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE DINNER

Legislator Steve Stern presents a proclamation to Candlewood Principal Andrew Greene.

HUNTINGTON, NY – Legislator Steve Stern (D-Huntington, 16th L.D) recognized Candlewood Middle School Principal Andrew Greene on being honored by the Half Hollow Hills PTA Council at its Candlewood PTA 50 Years of Excellence Dinner for his commitment and dedication to the students of the Half Hollow Hills school district.

Principal Greene started his career in education as a music teacher and assistant principal at several school districts and has been Principal of Candlewood Middle School since 1997. He is a past President of the Long Island Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development and is currently the Co-President of the Suffolk County Middle Level Principals Association. He is also an adjunct professor at Stony Brook University and is the Co-President of the Administrators Association in the Half Hollow Hills School District.

Principal Greene has worked closely with the foremost experts in the field of education, Grant Wiggins and Jay McTighe and his work at Candlewood Middle School is featured in their new book entitled “Schooling by Design.”

“Principal Greene has provided an invaluable service to our families of the Half Hollow Hills community,” Legislator Steve Stern said. “I thank him for his many years of dedication and commitment to our children at Candlewood Middle School.”
